PE Kits

Gentle reminder.

As you are aware, children should come to school on their PE days already wearing their PE kits. PE kits should consist of black/navy/grey bottoms, i.e. jogging bottoms, leggings, shorts etc., a white t-shirt and a black/navy/grey jumper/hoody. The jumper is optional but is recommended, especially on days where PE is taking place outside.

If anyone has any questions or concerns about this, please contact the school or speak to your child's class teacher.

Can we also remind parents to please remove ALL jewellery on the days that your child's class has PE, and any days where they attend a sport related after school club, before they come to school. This will avoid any disappointment of not being able to take part.

Tweak of the Week: Involve others in your games. Don't leave people out. Take turns, be a team – let everyone have a turn of deciding who leads.

Supporting Maths at Home

Each week we'll send home ideas for how you can easily support children's mathematical development at home.

Practice making patterns by making a paper garland. Use different colour papers and practice sequencing skills...green, blue, red, yellow.

Make it seasonal, trickier and practise cutting skills by making an autumn leaf garland.

Or how about making a sequenced shape and colour garland.

Phonics, Keyword and Reading at home.

The children will begin their daily phonics lessons in class next week. We use Monster Phonics. Information about the scheme can be found on our website. Each week we'll let you know what sounds (phonemes) the children will be learning and which keywords (sometimes called Common Exception Words or High Frequency Words) they need to have learnt to read and in Year One and Two to spell by the end of the week.

It's really important that the children practise at home so that they keep up.

Mrs Kaine has updated the system so that you can access the right books for your child.

Autumn 2 Week 2	Reception	Year One	Year Two

Tweak of the Week: Involve others in your games. Don't leave people out. Take turns, be a team – let everyone have a turn of deciding who leads.

Monster Phonics - a little more information for parents new to school about our phonics scheme.

Monster Phonics is a whole school scheme. It teaches children to read by enabling them to identify the letters and to blend sounds together to read words.

Monster Phonics uses a multi-sensory approach – the children use their different senses to learn, not rely on just listening, looking or doing but using combinations of approaches to make it easier for the children to remember; to make the learning stick.

The sounds are put into 10 colour groups and each colour has a corresponding monster character.

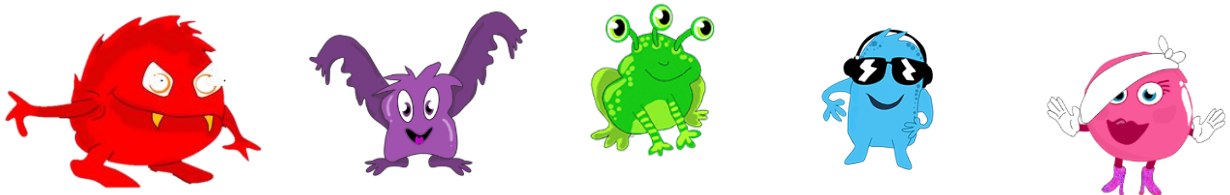

Children at Stocksbridge Nursery Infant School start their Monster Phonics Learning in Reception and continue into Year One and Two. The children are taught in their year groups. A minority of pupils attend phonics lessons in a different year group if they have Special Educational Needs.

We send home the phonemes (sounds) your child will be learning each week, the keywords they will need to learn to read (and in Years One and Two spell) and the eBooks we would like you to share with your child each week.

The login for eBooks is via this website: Sign In | MP eBooks \(monsterphonics.com\) You should have received your child's log in details.

In addition to the eBooks, your child will begin bringing home an additional phonics book to practise reading using the sounds they know. These books are organised using numbers.

In their book bags there will also be a book with a coloured sticker. These books do not rely on phonics (using their knowledge of sounds) but help children practise other skills such as recognising keywords. Keywords are those words that you just have to know on sight, either because they are used so often in our language, or because they don't follow the rules. The books with coloured labels also use repetition or prompt the children to look at the pictures to work out what the words say.

What Parents & Educators Need to Know about FINAL FANTASY XIV

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

The video game Final Fantasy XIV launched in 2010, and, despite being critically panned, it saw an overhaul that has made it one of the biggest success stories in gaming. Its huge world, epic story and versatile combat system have continued to draw in new players, but there's a lot that trusted adults need to be aware of – not least the cost of paying monthly to play.

ALWAYS ONLINE

Final Fantasy XIV is an MMORPG, which stands for Massively Multiplayer Online Role-Playing Game. Much like World of Warcraft, players create a character in a chosen class and level up by completing quests to gain power and items. The game requires a constant internet connection, whether you're playing on PC, Mac, PlayStation or Xbox, and there's no option to play offline.

REGULAR EXPANSIONS

As with similar titles in the genre, players can purchase expansions to unlock additional content for the game. Those without the expansions will be locked out of certain new quests and activities, meaning that young people who play regularly will potentially have the next release earmarked on their calendar, ready to buy it as soon as possible.

IN-GAME PURCHASES & SUBSCRIPTION FEE

Users need to pay £8.99 per month to play Final Fantasy XIV, but there is a free trial. If someone stops paying, they'll lose access to their character (although they'll be able to pick up the payments again and resume where they left off). If a player forgets to cancel their payments, however, those subscription fees will continue rolling on automatically.

FREE TRIAL

VOICE & TEXT CHAT

Final Fantasy XIV lets players send chat messages in-game or speak to each other over voice chat. On the one hand, that provides plenty of choice for how those enjoying the game can interact with their fellow fans. On the other hand, however, it's easier than in many games to receive unprompted messages from a stranger, with whom you constantly share your play space.

VIOLENCE

While Final Fantasy XIV has a fairly light tone throughout some of its quests, many involve killing enemies and sometimes even wild animals. The violence isn't especially strong – more comparable to a cartoon or anime style – but the act alone may make some children feel uncomfortable, if they're not yet able to separate fictional harm from the real kind.

POTENTIAL FOR ADDICTION

As with World of Warcraft, there's an element of addiction to Final Fantasy XIV. The gameplay loop can be quite engrossing, as minutes turn into hours and hours into days while playing alone or with friends. This can potentially lead to missing real-life events, a lack of interest in any activities not related to the game and procrastination around responsibilities like schoolwork.

Advice for Parents & Educators

MANAGE PLAYTIME

Playtime limits are a great way to counter the addictive qualities of games like Final Fantasy XIV. They allow you discuss why it's still important to enjoy things outside of gaming while still letting a child enjoy playing online with their friends when it makes sense to do so. It's all well and good to have fun with a game, so long as they're able to step away and reconnect with the real world.

MAKE USE OF THE FREE TRIAL

The Final Fantasy XIV free trial is a generous one, with no limits on how long someone can play until their character hits level 70. That's easily dozens of hours for a child to go through the game, complete quests, and see if they enjoy it before purchasing expansions or subscribing to a membership. They may well move on to something else before you need to spend so much as a penny.

PLAY TOGETHER

The free trial makes it extremely easy to jump into Final Fantasy XIV and play alongside a child, provided they're old enough. Not only does that help you ensure that settings are adjusted for their privacy and safety, but it may also end up becoming a bonding experience for you both and any other family members that want to try it out.

REMEMBER, IT'S A PEGI 16

Despite its often-relaxing nature, Final Fantasy XIV carries a PEGI 16 rating for violence and drugs (although the latter is due to a character smoking a pipe on occasion). There's minimal blood, but characters can attack enemies (and other players) with weapons and spells. Take a look at some gameplay videos to see if the content is appropriate for a younger player.

Toileting in Nursery

Whilst lots of our children are toilet trained in Nursery, albeit the occasional accident which is perfectly normal, quite a large number still require changing, sometimes two to three times a day. On Thursday this week, Nursery colleagues did 20 changes. This takes Nursery staff away from playing and teaching the children for large chunks of the day. That's quite a lot of time spent in the bathroom when they could be interacting and moving children onwards and upwards. There are some great resources online to support parents.

Harvest Festival

Our Harvest Festival is on Tuesday 15th October. We will donate all our offerings to Stocksbridge Food Hub. We would be most grateful if, on the 15th October you could send your child to school with a tin or packet of food. During assembly, each child comes up to the front to make their offering.

Macmillan Cake Sale 27th September & FOSNI pre-loved uniform sale.

We're raising money for Macmillan next Friday with our version of the coffee morning. We'd love it if you could send in buns, cakes or biscuits with your child. It would be great if you would give your child a donation to bring too or do it online through ParentPay. We make sure that all the children then enjoy a sweet treat on Friday and we're raising funds for a good cause too.

After school there will be a cake sale of leftovers (from 2.30pm) outside the office. FOSNI will also be holding a pre-loved uniform sale. It's all very good quality and has been washed and ironed. Uniform with our logo is £1.00. Any without a logo – trousers, skirts etc is 50p.

Christmas Fair

(I know I can't believe we've put the C word on a newsletter in September!)

Our small, but effective, FOSNI (Friends of Stocksbridge Nursery Infant) team met this week to plan events for this term. Last year we held our first Christmas Fair for a long time. It was a lovely event and very successful so we're planning on running it again. It will be held on Tuesday 10th December, the reason to add it so early to a newsletter is to ask if you would begin saving things for us.

- Bottle bags

If you have a sort of soft toys in the run up to Christmas, please could we have them to put in a soft toy raffle. If you have any unopened, unused and unwanted gifts lurking in drawers and cupboards, would you please consider donating these to school so we can use them in a raffle.

We'll send more information, probably on a regular basis as we move through the term. The stalls we are hoping to run, to give you some ideas are:

Homemade stall of bakes and other goodies, a cup tombola, a bottle raffle, soft toy tombola, face painting, festive tattoos, a decoration stall and a colour hamper raffle. We're hoping for some festive music from our school choir. The man in red may make a visit and there'll be refreshments too.

Mrs Townsend's Pupils of the Week

Eira Slack. Eira is a great listener no matter where she is learning – in class, in assembly, outside. This helps to make her a great learner. Eira is quiet and unassuming, always in the right place at the right time doing the best she can. She is a pleasure to be around. Thank you Eira.

Nursery News

We are so impressed at how quickly the children have settled into Nursery life. They really are great to work and play with and are quickly becoming very independent which is great to see. This week we have practised our numbers and worked hard at painting more carefully.

Star of the Week

Alfie Chappell is really showing us what he can do. He has asked thoughtful questions, played fantastic games and tried hard with his learning. Al, we are so proud of how much you are maturing, offering to Nursery and thinking of others.

The children's out of school achievements this week. Keep them coming. What they do and learn out of school is as important as what they do here.

This lovely little girl has been working very hard at her swimming lessons and passed her level 2 last weekend!

I think we may have a contestant for Great British Bake Off in our midst!

Lots of fun was had last week at Penistone Show.
